MINE WORKERS TO APPEAL DECISION

Motion Filed in United States Circuit Court in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Attorneys for the United Mine Workers of America today filed in the federal circuit court of appeals a petition for an appeal from the injunction issued by Judge A. B. Anderson at Indianapolis last week in which he barred the check-off system of deducting union dues from miners' wages by the companies.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 4.—Every union miner in Indiana was idle today according to John Heister, district president of the United Mine Workers of America. For this reason, he said, no formal strike order would be issued.

Reports received at union headquarters showed every mine having railroad facilities was closed and that the few wagon mines in operation had an aggregate daily production of 1,000 tons.

The complete walkout of the union miners followed the action of the operators taken at their meeting last night in deciding to abolish the check-off as provided by the federal court injunction.

Twenty-five thousand men have been idle for the last two days and the increase estimated today was 25,000.

It is said the railroad police had trailed the pair for a long time in an endeavor to catch them with the goods, and on Wednesday followed them from Fairmont to this city.

It is believed the bird came from some section of the mountain which was stocked several years ago. The birds were first introduced into Oregon from China. Later they were brought to the eastern United States where they have thrived but as yet have not become very numerous.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL LAUNCHED AT CHAIRMEN'S RALLY

Chief Speaker at Gathering in Uniontown Is Mrs. G. W. Buckner.

WORK DONE IS OUTLINED

Personnel for County Campaign Beginning November 11 About Completed. Hope Is to Secure Larger Enrollment Than Last Year's, 15,000.

District chairmen and county officials of the Payette County Chapter, American Red Cross, were guests at luncheon at the Central Christian church in Uniontown yesterday, a roll call campaign which will be launched on November 11 and continue until November 24.

More than a score were present and the two-hour conference following the luncheon developed great enthusiasm in the campaign which will be launched on November 11 and continue until November 24.

Had all the people of Payette county been able to hear the address of Mrs. G. W. Buckner, director of home work in the chapter, a roll call campaign would be unnecessary. Memberships in the chapter would be a higher grade than the dollar membership—would be offered voluntarily.

The paramount duty of the Red Cross now is to the service men and their families, said Mrs. Buckner, as she launched into specific instances of the work in Payette county. She told of a case handled only this week when it was reported that an aged mother was supporting herself and tuberculosis son, an ex-service man, by taking in washing.

An investigation of the Red Cross was sent to make an investigation. The case was found to be pathetic. The son was too ill to work. The mother and the boy were living in two rooms, the mother washing for them to keep a roof over their heads and the father for their physical sustenance.

The mother was given an allowance by the Red Cross so that for the present at least she need not be washing. The son's service papers and affidavit have been taken preparatory to securing compensation for the son's service. And it was pointed out that this is a part of the service which the American government has obligated to the Red Cross but has not provided the funds for the work. The membership in the annual roll calls help to continue this work.

Mrs. Buckner, with wife and baby, assigned to a local school by the federal vocational board, was without funds due to failure of the government check to arrive. The baby was sick; the family had no money and nowhere to turn. The Red Cross provided temporary assistance. She said that a number of other similar cases had been handled by the Red Cross, and that the Red Cross was providing quick, instant relief.

Executive Secretary W. P. Scheuk went into detail with the other phases of the service and work of the Red Cross, the home service, the invaluable work being done by the public health nurses and by the home emergency and would be functioning smoothly within less than 24 hours, before the federal machinery in such cases could even be started.

Rev. E. A. Hodli in a four-minute address paid a high tribute to the work of the Red Cross and pointed out that it was the duty of every citizen to support it.

Chairman Arford went into detail of the preparations which have made the Red Cross ready to act quickly in the case of a catastrophe or emergency—pointing out that the menace of a great mine disaster is always present in Payette county and that the Red Cross, with hundreds of workers, trained nurses and funds ready to meet any such emergency, would be functioning smoothly within less than 24 hours, before the federal machinery in such cases could even be started.

Rev. E. A. Hodli in a four-minute address paid a high tribute to the work of the Red Cross and pointed out that it was the duty of every citizen to support it.

Million Dollars Loss by Fire Sweeping Erie Piers

By Associated Press.
VERHAGEN, N. J., Nov. 4.—The Erie railroad's Verhagen piers and water front yards were laid waste early today by one of the most spectacular fires the metropolitan area has witnessed in years. Five piers, all heavily laden with freight, a five-story warehouse, 10 loaded barges, a train of 20 freight cars and five oil tanks were destroyed.

Early estimates of the loss range from a million dollars up but the estimate will remain speculative until a survey can be made of the shipments that were in transit.

WEST PENN LOSES IN CLAIM FOR COAL UNDER ALLEGHENY

Warrant for 100 Acres Invalid Because of Non-Payment by Warrantee.

WAS GRANTED IN 1864 RAILROAD IS NECESSARY

By Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.—A question of rights under a state land patent is decided today by the West Penn Power company by Deputy Attorney General William J. Swope in an opinion rendered today to Secretary of Internal Affairs James P. Woodward. It involves a patent for the mineral rights underlying 100 acres of bed of the Allegheny river in Allegheny county.

A warrant for the land was granted A. M. Fulton on June 2, 1864, followed by a survey and a return, the grant being made under acts passed in the forties and fifties.

It appears from the record that the purchase money was never paid and a lien was entered, which caused the secretary to inquire whether a patent could be issued under the warrant and a survey made 57 years ago when the money was not paid. It is held that until a patent is granted the warrantee had an incomplete title and as over half a century has passed by without a return being made for a patent it is held the present holder of the warrant has failed to comply with statutory requirements.

WESTERN ROAD PLACES ORDER FOR 2,500 CARS

By Associated Press.

E. Zyrian, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad.

Soldier Memorial Being Favored by Citizens Generally

An earnest and effective effort is being made by a number of prominent citizens of the county to bring the soldier memorial proposition to the attention of voters on election day. Mrs. J. C. Work of Uniontown, county chairman of the organization having the campaign in charge, is visiting different sections of the county and is making addresses. She has appointed a number of the chairman to arrange for the presence of ladies at the polls on election day to interest voters in a favorable consideration of the question.

Mrs. A. D. Soliman is in charge in Connellsville and is completing arrangements to have two representatives of the Daughters of the American Revolution in attendance at each polling place. Placards urging voters to remember the men who fought for their country will be displayed.

Those in charge of the campaign find everywhere a disposition on the part of voters to view the proposition favorably. About all that seems to be necessary is to call their attention to the matter and they readily agree that authorizing the erection of the memorial is the proper and creditable thing for the people of Payette county to do.

COAL TRADE BOOST IN LOCAL REGION IS A POSSIBILITY

If Pittsburg District Miners Come Out on Strike, as Threatened.

WOULD DIVERT DEMAND

To the Connellsville Region, Cause an Increase in Production and Higher Prices; Only a Few River Mines Would Be Idle on Strike Order.

If the strike of miners at certain mines in the Pittsburg district takes place next Monday, as threatened, and continues for any length of time, a very pronounced effect will be felt in the coal trade of the Connellsville region. There will very probably be an increased demand on the mines and just as probably will there be an increase in prices for the different grades of coal.

The strike, if it occurs, will be confined to the mines of the operators comprising the Pittsburg Coal Producers association which has officially notified the district president of the United Mine Workers that members of the companies of the association will observe the provision in the injunction of Federal Judge Anderson of Indianapolis to discontinue the "check-off" of miners' dues from the payroll. Eighty cents a month and one-half of one per cent of the miners' gross earnings have been turned over to the union under the "check-off" system.

With the exception of a few mines along the Monongahela river no part of the coke region will be made idle in the event of a strike. These mines are included within the jurisdiction of District No. 6 of the United Mine Workers, hence subject to a strike order if one is issued. Outside of the district it is not anticipated that there will be any cessation of work. In fact, the result would probably be a speeding up of operations at the non-union mines in response to a demand from consumers who are now dependent upon the Pittsburg district for their supply.

The rates of wages prevailing at the mines of the Connellsville region will attract men in case there is an increase in activity as a result of a strike, hence there would be no difficulty in swelling production to meet the demand.

There is not, however, a very spirited demand for coal. Since the railroad strike was called off the mines of the Pittsburg district especially have complained of a slump in business. For some weeks preceding the date for the strike the railroad workers came into the market rather freely and stocked up in anticipation of a stoppage of the railroads. That event having been prevented coal consumers do not now feel the necessity of making additions to their stocks.

There is, therefore, a bare possibility that even if a strike is ordered in the Pittsburg district a week or two may elapse before a drive of coal buyers is made on the Connellsville region as the next best available source of supply. Producers will be in readiness to meet such a condition and will be able to increase their output to the limit of the railroads' facilities to move it, if the need becomes so great as that.

CALL LAUNCHED AT CHAIRMEN'S RALLY

Continued from Page One. greater service is being rendered by the county chapter for every dollar expended than by any other chapter in the county. The chairman is being borne out by recognition from division and national headquarters to that effect.

Chairman J. Fred Kutz spoke briefly of the national convention of the Red Cross held at Columbus and of the important event that is being held here.

Personalities for the county membership campaign have practically been completed. The chairman has selected or are selecting their workers. It was emphasized that it is necessary to make a house-to-house canvass, to bring the appeal direct into the homes of the people of the county and to enroll not only members of a family but every member of a family. The classes of membership were explained in detail and will be covered in a later communication from the headquarters to the public.

Last year approximately 15,000 members enrolled in the Red Cross. It is hoped this year to show a much larger enrollment.

BEFORE HEALTH BREAKS DOWN

Wise People Take Pepto-Mangan, the Blood Builder.

The prevention of sickness is one of the greatest works of the public health authorities. People are being taught how to take care of their bodies so that they can avoid sickness.
In schools children are being taught hygiene. Serious illness can be avoided by proper care of the health.
Pale faces, sickly bodies, loss of appetite and sleep, headaches and nervousness are usually signs of weak blood. With poor blood, the body has no resistance.

Disease germs have an easy time of it. People are learning the necessity of keeping blood in good condition. They take Gude's Pepto-Mangan when they feel run down. That keeps blood normal so that it can resist disease. It is sold in both liquid and tablet form at drug stores.—ad-

FRIDAY EVENING NOV. 4, 1921.

NEW AND LARGER INTEREST IN ARMISTICE DAY.

Armistice Day will be celebrated for the first time this year as a legal holiday in Pennsylvania in accordance with an act passed by the last Legislature and approved by Governor Sprout. It will also be proclaimed as such by President Harding, a resolution having been adopted by Congress making such request.

That the day will thus be accorded a form of recognition not previously given, and that Milton L. Bishop, Post No. 301 of The American Legion of Conneltsville had a very important part in inaugurating the movement to declare Armistice Day a holiday, should invest the celebration here this year with a new and larger interest on the part of both veterans of the World War and civilians.

Very shortly after the local post was organized the suggestion was made by some of its members that Armistice Day should be made a holiday. Steps were at once taken by communicating the wishes of the post to Congressman Kendall. He brought the matter to the attention of Congress through a bill which was later referred to committee. At the last session of the Legislature similar effort was made to enlist that body in behalf of the proposed holiday. This resulted in the enactment of a bill which received Governor Sprout's signature.

Having been largely instrumental in thus having Armistice Day listed as a legal holiday in the state has been but one of the distinctions achieved by the local legion post. Its members have figured prominently in state and national conventions and the honor belongs to the post of having organized the first Women's Auxiliary Unit in the state and nation.

But these things to the credit of the home town veterans are less to be considered in connection with the forth-coming celebration than the fact that it is an occasion, as Governor Sprout has expressed it, "not only marking it a memorial of woes, now happily past, but to be contemplated as the beginning of a new era which it is our hope and prayer may be free from the worst horrors of war." The day should, therefore, be regarded as a time when it is our privilege to accord special honor to the men, living and dead, whose sacrifices have contributed so much toward making future wars improbable, if not also impossible.

THE LIMITATIONS CONFERENCE AND PRAYER.

America has always been a God-fearing, God-trusting country. True to the traditions and traditions of the founders of the republic no great national undertaking has been entered upon without an appeal for Divine guidance and direction. Of this there are numerous historical examples, a notable one being the motion of Benjamin Franklin that the daily sessions of the constitutional convention of 1787 be opened with prayer.

Upon that occasion Franklin gave utterance to a sentiment which it is timely to repeat in view of the sentiment that has developed in favor of similar action as a prelude to the sessions of the Conference for the Limitation of Armaments, to convene in Washington next week. When making his motion Franklin said:

"I have lived, sir, a long time, and the longer I live the more convincing proofs I see of this truth, that God governs the affairs of men, and if a sparrow cannot fall without His notice, is it probable that an Empire can rise without His assistance? I firmly believe that without His aid we shall succeed in our political building no better than the builders of Babel. We shall be divided by our little party local interests; our projects will be confounded; and we ourselves shall become a reproach and byword to future ages. And what is worse, mankind may hereafter, from this unfortunate instance, despair of establishing governments by human wisdom, and leave it to Chance, War and Conquest."

There is an aptness in the application of Franklin's statement to the circumstances attending the opening of the Limitations Conference. While the body will determine the order of its procedure, as well as the question of open or closed sessions, Christian America very earnestly hopes God will not be left out of the conference, as was done at the sittings of the Paris Peace Conference. In all sections of the country there is a spontaneously expressed desire that the president therefore observed upon momentous occasions in our history will be followed and that both public and private prayers will be offered for the spiritual guidance of the conference. In recognition of this desire Governor Sprout has issued a proclamation to the people of that state. The opening of the conference falling on Armistice Day the governor asks that it be observed not only as a time of thanksgiving for relief from the terrors of war, but during the intervening time, and especially upon the Sunday preceding, that prayers be offered in the churches and homes. President Harding has enjoined the same solemn duty on the people of the nation at large. Everywhere plans are being made to set aside Sunday, November 13, as a day of prayer in the churches.

In an event the issues of which are freighted with so much importance to the world as the conference will be, human wisdom cannot alone find the way to a right solution of the far-reaching problems which are to be considered. To the degree that there is a firm reliance upon and trusting faith in a Higher Power will these problems be solved.

This faith and this trust should be stimulated and encouraged by the God-fearing citizens, who with Franklin, realize that God governs the affairs of men, and if a sparrow cannot fall without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His assistance?

Greater than an empire can eventually be made to rise out of the deliberations of the conference if implicit faith be placed in His power to guide those who earnestly seek His counsel and direction.

Letting Pupils Think.

A Topeka teacher believes that the way to teach pupils to do their own thinking is to give them a lead and then see what happens. The other day she told her school that she would write a sentence on the blackboard and they would write something of their own under it along the same idea. What she wrote was: "Do not play with matches. Remember the Chicago fire." One little boy wrote under it: "Do not spit. Remember the flood."

New York Sun. Alice—Why do women always cry at weddings? Virginia—I suppose the single ones cry from love and the married ones from sympathy!

Just Folks

Edgar A. Guest.

SOME DAY.

Some day they'll know why we worry
When into the road on flying feet
They venture the dangers of the street
Some day the youngest of them will know
Although he laughs at our fears today
Just why we watch him out there at play.

Some day they'll know why we whisper
When they wish to wander where danger lies
And bring the tears to their youthful eyes
Some day they'll learn what we dread
Some day they'll find, in the years to be What only the parents of children see.

They wonder now why it is we stay
Forever watching them, day and night
The mother praying that they're all right
Never at peace till they come from play;
Some day, down in the distant years,
They'll share and they'll understand our fears.

They'll know why the mother has never slept
Until she has seen them all safe in bed
And why she has waited to hear their sound
And there at the window her watch has kept;
When they have children to come and go,
They'll know why it was that we worried so.

LET US CONSIDER

Economy is a policy often and wisely recommended, but too frequently passed along unheeded. To conserve one's earnings is an unmistakable sign of thrift. One of the best ways to Conserve is by saving money on all purchases, thereby increasing earnings to just that extent.

Union Supply Company stores are benefiting thousands of customers in just this way. These customers KNOW that our prices are lower for merchandise of recognized quality, and it is our constant aim to see that this confidence is not misplaced.

Should you, too, like to conserve earnings, buy from Union Supply Company.

Mark Sullivan Reporter

For The Courier at the

Limitations Conference

Mark Sullivan, one of the ablest newspaper correspondents in the world and formerly editor of Collier's Weekly, will report the Washington Conference for the Limitations of Armaments for The Courier.

For 16 years Mr. Sullivan's "Comments on Congress" were the outstanding feature of Colliers in that they presented the keenest analysis and most informing interpretation of what Congress was doing that was printed in any publication in America. His reports of the Paris Peace Conference were equally illuminating.

Mr. Sullivan is therefore equipped by a broad knowledge of world statesmen and world problems to correctly interpret the deliberations of the body called together for the purpose of taking the first steps toward minimizing the burdens of war.

The first of Mr. Sullivan's articles will appear in The Courier of November 7. You cannot afford to miss a single one of them.

Connellsville High Set For Hardest Game of Year With Greensburg Tomorrow

Team Hopes to Hold Westmoreland County Gridders to Low Score.

TACKLING FORM BETTER

Connellsville high school will play its hardest game and also one of the biggest games of the season at Fayette field tomorrow afternoon. Greensburg Hi will be the attraction. The strongest high school team in Western Pennsylvania is the rating Greensburg has held for years but Johnston proved strong enough to score as many touchdowns as the Westmoreland county eleven in the annual grid battle. The Cokers put up a good game with the Flood City team until their morale cracked.

The locals will be under no such strain tomorrow afternoon. The anticipations of the team are to hold Greensburg and stop Carroll's steamroller. A score by Connellsville is another feature expected. The Cokers have always displayed the knack of putting up their poorest game against a weaker team and then playing right up to the minute when they hit a first class outfit. Such may be the case tomorrow as the squad made such a poor showing last week against Scottsdale.

The high school students will turn out en masse. Organized rooting will be one of the features of the afternoon and an interesting yelling duel is in prospect as Greensburg is expected to bring a large crowd. Coach Wine expects greatly improved form in tackling tomorrow afternoon. Three days the team has worked hard on perfecting its angle of their work, using the dummy and also each other. Backs and linemen alike have been worked rigorously on the tackling machine and they cannot have helped but gain some advantage from this work. Even if the Cokers cannot score, the right kind of tackling will keep the visitors away from the goal line.

Big Order of Tickets for Boxing Show

The largest single order of tickets ever placed to witness a boxing show under the auspices of the Fayette Athletic club, was placed yesterday by George Miller of Fayette City, who reserved 26 ring-side seats for the coming 10-round bout between Tommy Phillips of McKeesport and Billy Currier of this city. These two smashing mixers are to meet at Slavish hall on Monday night, November 14.

That the coming meeting between these two fighters who made the highly touted Johnny Donnelly "shake his dust" is one that has evidently met with the full approval of out of town fans, not to mention the interest shown locally may be judged by Miller's order.

On a par with the main encounter three sterling preliminary contests will take place between local and out of town boxers who are prime favorites here on account of their fast brand of boxing.

BOXING PROMOTER HAS TROUBLE WITH COMP FEST.

"One of the greatest drawbacks to a boxing promoter has to contend with in the promotion of the sport is the complimentary pest," says Duke Barry, the local matchmaker. "Why they pick on the sport which has the hardest fight to go over successfully is beyond me. Boxing shows are the biggest gamble in the world, where in the promoter stands more losses than any other sport, and it is the most expensive to promote."

Barry added that of the last three shows held here not one added a cent to his bank roll, but cost him plenty of money not to mention the labor and hard work.

"Should one of the bouts of a rattling good show fail to come up to expectations, you will hear the holder of the 'comp' telling the world what a rotten show it was," concluded Duke.

The Victrola Has Many Imitations Which is the Best Proof of Victor Supremacy. The Leading Artists of the World Sing Exclusively For the Victrola.

With but few exceptions the Victrola is found in the homes of culture and refinement. The greatest singers of the whole world sing only for the Victrola.

The Victrola is not to be confused with the cheap, common phonograph. The Victrola is an exact reproducing instrument that gives you the artists' voice, or instruments, exactly as the artists themselves either sing or play them.

There is no foolish accessories on the Victrola to distort or disarrange the melody or harmony of any of the great masters' selections. There is no concealed tin horn to give you metallic tones, but wooden sound boards—after the same principle in construction as a Violin or Piano. Lastly, with the Victrola alone and Victor Records you can sit in your own parlor and you will hear the ARTISTS AS THEY ARE without any interference on your part of making the singer do what you want him to do.

Compare the little $25 Victrola with any Phonograph sold up to $150 or more, and with the little Victrola YOUR ear (even if it's an uncultured musical ear) can readily detect the superiority of the little Victrola over the large concealed tin-horn imitation.

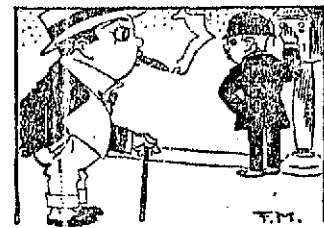

Come in today. Let us demonstrate the wonderful superiority of the Victrola.

ROUND-UP OF LAW VIOLATORS IS AUTHORIZED

South Connellsville Council Gives Warning of Several Infractions.

HUNTING IN BOROUGH ONE

Revision of Ordinance Necessary to Give Firemen Status of Policemen;
Fireman's Class of High School
Names Officers; Other News of Day.

Special to The Courier.

SOUTH CONNELLSVILLE, Nov. 4.—The South Connellsville borough council decided war on persons violating the laws and ordinances of the borough at the regular meeting last evening. It has issued instructions for the arrest of any person violating any laws, such as the blocking of alley ways with wagons or automobiles, burning rubbish in the alleys, hunters who shoot game within the borough limits and other infractions.

The meeting was presided over by R. C. Shupe in the absence of Walter Trevitt, who is away on a hunting trip.

The question of whether the policeman shall receive a stated salary or not was brought up and a motion was made that it should be agreed the policeman shall receive the sum of $1 a year for his services. Attention was called to the fact that enactment of an ordinance will be necessary before this can be accomplished. The lay reads:

"The borough policeman shall receive a stated salary to be fixed by ordinance; and it shall be unlawful for any borough policeman to charge any fee or other compensation in addition to his salary. A person violating the provisions of the preceding section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $50 and costs or undergo imprisonment not exceeding 30 days or both."

The borough solicitor will prepare the ordinance early next week. A special meeting will be called and the matter settled.

Fireman's Class Organized.

The Fireman's class of the Gibson high school held a meeting on Wednesday afternoon and organized, electing the following officers: President, Earl Beatty; vice-president, Jack Meade; secretary, Mary Elizabeth Watson; treasurer, Robert Lee; social committee, Elsie Fabian, Kathryn Kester, Ruth Richter, George Solson and Arthur Evans. The motto of the class is: "We Climb Over the Rocks, May There Be No Steps." The class flower is the violet; the class colors, red and black.

Coon Run Club Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Walker entertained the Coon Run orchestra Wednesday evening at their home in Pittsburg street. There were six members of the orchestra present: Joseph and Russell Hood, Ray and Thomas Towsey, Edward Provance and R. P. Holland. The evening was spent in playing cards and other games. When Baby Complains.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS a baby has of expressing any pain or irritation. The condition of health and happiness. A short sharp cry, a prolonged irritated cry, restlessness, constant turning of the head or of the whole body, fretful. In these and other ways a baby tells you there is something wrong. Most mothers know that a disordered stomach, or bowels that do not act naturally are the cause of most of baby's suffering. A call for the doctor is the first thought, but in the event of any delay there should be ready at hand a safe remedy such as Fletcher's Castoria.

Castoria has been used for baby's ailments for over 30 years and has merited the good word of the family physician in the most equalled by any other baby's medicine because of its harmlessness and the good results achieved.

And remember this: Castoria is essentially a baby's remedy and not a cure-all for every member of the family. What might help you is too often dangerous when given to a baby.

Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

THOUSANDS OF THIN PEOPLE HAVE SPLENDID APPETITES YET FAIL TO PUT ON FLESH AND GAIN WEIGHT—WHY?

Strong, Straightforward Advice to Thin, Undeveloped Men and Women.

If you are thin, scrawny and undeveloped, if your face is peaked and your cheeks and neck exhibit unsightly hollows, it's almost certain that your nervous system is at the bottom of the trouble. You can eat three, yes four, substantial, fat producing meals a day, but as long as your stomach has an insufficient supply of nerve force, the food you eat will pass out of the body with little if any benefit.

In order to assimilate properly the nourishing food you eat and convert it into healthy tissue and fat the nervous (but control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape and until that is done you might just as well quit trying to put on flesh. Your system is starving for something that will turn the food you eat into healthy, stay-there flesh and it can only be done in one way—by

IF STOMACH IS WEAK OR UPSET, TAKE "DIAPEPSIN"

"Pape's Diapepsin" "really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness. In the meantime—but just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stultifying lumps, you belch gas and eructate acid, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous—and the joy is its harmlessness. A large sixty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin is worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach the day or at night. It's the most efficient and stomach regulator in the world—advertisement.

They Are Tuning Up

Since the announcement in last Saturday's Courier of the old fiddlers' concert and old fashioned dance to be held at the armory, the old timers have been tuning up and on a score of streets last night the old familiar strains of "Turkey in the Straw," "Arkansas Traveler" and others could be heard. The interest is keen and one of the greatest gatherings of its kind is anticipated. Two of the most popular classical compositions that have ever been written, "Humoresque" and "Ave Maria," are on the program of the local violin soloist. To hear these renditions by a real artist is alone worth the time spent at the entertainment. For the square dancing one of the best known figures on the scene of this section has been engaged and this part of the evening's entertainment is bound to be well patronized. There will be a cash prize offered for the most graceful figure dancers in the square sets as well as a prize for the best dancing act. The concert will follow the violin solo at about 9:30, then more dancing until closing time. — Advertisement.

Happy After 20 Years

"I must write and tell you I am getting along fine. For 20 years, that is over half of my life, I have spent in poor health and suffering from severe gas in stomach and indigestion. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Connellsville Drug Store and All Good Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allonrin Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided after years of fruitless study that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities commonly called uric acid deposits were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally composed a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it with what might be called "uninvoluntary success." After years of trying he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Connellsville Drug Store has been appointed agent for Allonrin in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit—Advertisement

Comrades of Charles Shoemaker Pay Last Honors to Him at Largely Attended Funeral Thursday.

MEYERSDALE, Nov. 4.—One of the largest funerals held here for some time was that of Charles Shoemaker on Thursday afternoon. Services were held in the Church of the Brethren, Rev. T. R. Mr. Shoemaker having been one of the boys of Company C, 110th Infantry, and one of the first to enlist in Meyersdale although he did not get overseas, being transferred to the Quartermaster's Corps at Camp Hancock. He was very anxious to get over with the other boys and succeeded so far as being on the ocean two days when the service was signed and was turned back.

The floral offerings were numerous and very handsome, showing the high esteem in which Mr. Shoemaker was held by his large circle of friends. The pallbearers were S. D. Cramer, Duff Hoblitzel, Frank Opel, Wilber Stotter, Robert Gnagoy and William B. Lockhart.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DIZZINESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you have Catarrhal Dizziness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get one ounce of Earmint (double strength) and add to it one-fourth pint of hot water and a little sweetened sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. "I—why—dear me! Don't you know where you are?"

"Not any more than a harmless, necessary goat, I assure you."

"I couldn't be certain, but I thought she took a little firmer hold upon her bridle reins."

"Did you—did you come from Angela?" she asked in a sort of awed little voice.

"How did you guess it? I was, indeed—for a very short space of time this very day, a member of the Angeleno band. And if you should ask me, I might say that I feel as though I had walked most of the way here from Angela. I—my car broke down, you know."

"Yes," she said, "I know—just as if she did. Then, if you at least tell me where you are. This is the southern slope of Clanshaw mountain. This road leads on down to Atropia, about three miles below."

"Yes, Atropia was the place I was trying to come to."

She stopped and appeared to be thinking about something. Then she said: "Really, I think you would better not go to Atropia. It's—well, it's quite a long walk."

"The walk doesn't specially appeal to me. I've done so much walking this afternoon that a few hundred miles, more or less, in addition wouldn't be worth mentioning. But for some other reason—"

"Yes, for some other reason," she said, repeating it right after her. Then: "I—well—Daddy and I might give you some supper, and you put up for the night, if—if you wouldn't mind sleeping in the loft."

My Lord! I hadn't so much as seen her face clearly yet, but I could have worshipped her! She had just come from Atropia, and she knew! Of course, she knew. That little dry-as-dust hamlet must have been standing for hours with the wire news of the escaped lunatic who had, alighted, in Angela only to light out again with a stolen inspection car. And in the face of all that she was willing to take a chance on me! If she had only known that I would cheerfully risk sleeping in the cellar—to say nothing of a loft—rather than lose sight of her, but she was going on a bit breathlessly. "It is only a short mile to our cabin—and if you are very tired, I might let you sit in Winkle."

"I shall be delighted to walk," I hastened to say.

"Straight on up the road, then," she directed.

We had traversed possibly half of the promised mile in plodding silence when we came to a place where the grade was to steep that it cut what was left of my sea-level wind to the small end of nothing.

"Stop a minute and get your breath," said the pony's rider; and when I had halted: "You are not used to these high altitudes, are you?"

"Not so that any one would remark it," I gasped. "How high up are we?"

"About five thousand feet. The mine is exactly five thousand three hundred, I believe."

"There it was, you see: THE MINE!"

"Pardon me," I blurted out; "but would you mind telling me if your eyes are blue?"

Her laugh was like a drink of cool spring water in the middle of a hot summer day; refreshing, you know, like that.

"I suppose my eyes are blue—people tell me they are."

"Thank you," I returned. "There is only one other little matter and that can very well wait until we are—or a bit better acquainted, you know. Shall we go on, now?"

She spoke to her pony and we went on. Ahead of us and diagonally up a steep slope I could see the distant figure of a number of buildings, all dark. Then we came to a great dump, looking as if the mountain had at one time opened to pour out a cataract of broken stone.

Beyond the dump there was another building with a light in it; as the dog ran ahead of us, barking, the figure of a man silhouetted itself in the open doorway.

"Here we are and you are welcome to the Old Cinnabar," said my companion to me. Then she "hoo-hoo-ed" cheerily to the man in the doorway and slipped out of her saddle, letting her pony stand while she led me across to the lighted, log-built cabin.

supper. It was an amazingly good meal; crisp bacon, fried potatoes, hot biscuits and honey, and coffee that was most delicious in spite of the condensed milk which was made to serve as cream.

After we left the table the blue-eyed maiden got housewifely busy, and the old man and I sat before the fire and smoked. I don't remember just how it was that we finally drifted around to automobiles and motor boats and such things, but we did, and maybe I may have bragged a bit about having driven and tinkered pretty nearly all the breeds of go-cart on land and water—as I really had.

"Know about machinery, do you?" said my host-mate; and then, with a humorous glint in his mild eyes: "Shouldn't wonder if you could be sort of a Godsend to me, if you wanted to. Tomorrow, if you ain't in too big a hurry to be leavin' us, I'll get you to show me a few things that I

CHAPTER VI.

The Old Cinnabar.

"Daddy, here is a man! I found down at the head of Antelope gulch; he had lost his way, so I brought him home with me," was the simple manner in which she launched out; and I found myself shaking hands with an elderly man who looked as if he might be a farmer, or a tinner, or something of that nature—you will know what I mean—fannel shirt, trousers tucked into boots, iron-gray whiskers all over his face, an eye as mild as a colt's dog's.

"You done plum' right, Jennie," he remarked; and then to me: "Come right on in, stranger, and be at home. If you don't see what you want, ask for it." After which he went to take care of the bleibid pony.

The log cabin proved to be primitive only on the outside. The interior was a dream of cozy homeliness. A hanging lamp lighted it, and in its mild glow I had my first real look at the girl.

She wasn't beautiful in any show-girl meaning of the word; she was something far better—pleasant, charming. A round little face, wind-tanned

Today and Tomorrow

The big thrill of David Belasco's play, "The Heart of Maryland," has been more than duplicated in the Vitaphone big special production of the drama, in which Catherine Calvert heads an all-star cast. For this scene a real church and bell were used, and the heroine swung over the housetops facing real danger in order that the spectacular thrill might be produced.

FREIGHT RATES ON COAL AND COKE TO BUFFALO PROTESTED

Furnacemen of That District Are at Disadvantage, They Claim.

ASK FOR A CONFERENCE

With the Interstate Commerce Commission With a View to Readjusting Rates from Connellsville Region May Develop Into a General Fight.

The request of Buffalo furnace interests for a conference with the Interstate Commerce Commission with a view to adjusting coal and coke freight rates, may open the way to a general conflict between all lake-front furnaces and the railroads, with the interior furnaces interested spectators, says the Washington correspondent of the Cleveland Daily Metal Trade.

The situation from which relief is sought has been developed by the action of the Railroad Administration in increasing freight rates on iron ore from the upper lakes to upper lake docks 30 cents a ton by the order dated June 25, 1918. By the ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission increasing rates on ore from the ranges to the docks 34 per cent, and the rates on coal from Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia 10 per cent to lake front furnaces, effective August 26, 1920. And finally by the reduction of 28 per cent in the rates on iron ore from lower lake ports to the interior furnaces, as of October 30, 1921.

All these changes have, the Buffalo furnacemen contend, operated to the disadvantage of the lake-front furnaces and in favor of the interior furnaces. These disadvantages have been set forth in a letter by counsel for the Lackawanna Steel company, Donner Street company, Hanna Furnace company, Wickwire-Lester Steel corporation and Rogers-Brown Iron company, which has been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission. The letter draws attention to the fact that the freight rate on coke from the Connellsville region to Buffalo has been increased from $2.00 to $3.54. The rate on iron ore from Lake Erie ports to points in the Connellsville district, effective October 18, 1921, was $1.03 per gross or $0.924 per net ton, an increase of but one-half per cent per gross ton over the rate of June, 1918. The coke rate increase has been $1.54 per net ton.

The rate on coal from the Reynolds-ville region to Buffalo was $1.25 per net ton in 1918, now it is $2.36, an increase of $1.11. The ore rate has been reduced from $0.98 to $0.705 per gross ton, but there has been no reduction in the coal rate.

"Comparing the recently reduced rates on iron ore with the present rates on coal," says the letter, "the ore rate from Buffalo to Du Bois and Piquette is 26.65 per cent of the coal rate in the reverse direction, the ore rate from Lake Erie ports to Pittsburgh is 29.95 per cent of the coal rate in the reverse direction, and the ore rate from Lake Erie ports to Connellsville district is 43.59 per cent of the coal rate in the reverse direction.

"It must be assumed that the reduced rates which the carriers have just put in effect on iron ore are compensatory. If they are not then the carriers are making our coal and coke stand the burden that should be borne by the iron ore. If on the other hand these iron ore rates are compensatory (and the presumption is that they are) then by comparison present coal and coke rates are excessive and extortionate."

TANLAC SURELY DOES THE WORK

Seranton Man Freed—of Rheumatism Says He Now Feels Better Than Ever Before.

"I am rid of the rheumatism, have gained 35 pounds in weight and feel better than I ever did in my life, so I say this Tanlac is some medicine," said Robert J. Culbert, as he enthusiastically related the facts of his recent restoration. Mr. Culbert is a well-known machinist employed by the Seranton Coal Co. and lives at 333 Penn. avenue, Seranton, Pa. He continued:

"I had rheumatism so bad in my arms I couldn't raise either hand above my head and I also had bad pains in my back. For months I walked stooped over, just couldn't straighten up. I was almost a nervous wreck, too, why, my hand shook so I couldn't raise food to my mouth with a spoon or fork.

"I was in awful state when I began to take Tanlac. If that medicine had made me over new I couldn't have made a bigger change in me than it did. I haven't a trace of rheumatism, not so much as a pain or an ache, and my nerves are as steady as steel. I just feel great. Tanlac certainly does the work."

Tanlac is sold in Connellsville by the Connellsville Drug Co., and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement.

Random Observations.
This isn't a country publisher talking, but the editor of a farm paper. The metropolitan daily will bring to one's doorstep the news of the world seen through the spectacles of the city editor, but it is the editor who lives in the heart of the community who is able to reflect the sentiment of the local group. He alone is the true interpreter of events as they affect the small town and the farming community that immediately surrounds the town.
